Training Workshop at the Alliance Française Sydney funded by the French Embassy in Australia 2007

Workshop for teachers of French in NSW October/November 2007
« Ateliers intégration des IT pour dynamiser la classe de FLE »

Objective:

The aim of this training session is to encourage teachers to integrate the use of the Internet into their teaching practises and to orient them towards the creation of resource support documents which adapt and transform authentic documents already available on the Internet.

Methodology:

During this training session, teachers will fulfil the following tasks:

- Discovery and analysis of different types of activities which can be undertaken using the Internet;
- Choice of a theme or a speech according to the needs of their classes;
- Research and selection of authentic documents on the Internet according to the themes chosen earlier;
- Elaboration of activities;
- Formulation of sequences of an activity;
- Creation and production of a work booklet for students;
- Creation and production of an educational dossier for teachers.

At the end of the session, the resource documents created by the teachers will be put online on the Echo-FLE website: www.echo-file.org

Audience: Teachers of French at middle school and senior school level in NSW.
